Peter was eight years old. He went to school near his house. He always went there and came home on foot. He usually got home on time, but last Friday he came home from school late.

His mother asked him, "Why are you so late today, Peter?"

"My teacher was really angry. She sent me to the headmaster," Peter answered.

"To the headmaster?" his mother said. "Why did she do that?"

"Because she asked a question in class," Peter said, "and I was the only one with the answer."

His mother was angry. "But why did the teacher send you to the headmaster? Why didn't she send all the other children?" she asked Peter.

"Because her question was, 'Who put glue on my chair?'" Peter said.
